CHAGRIN VALLEY CAMERA CLUB

March 2010 Newsletter

Spring is only 20 days away. We celebrate spring as “seed time”, “prime of the year”, “the boyhood of the year” (Tennyson) and “the time of the singing of birds” (Bible). Living in Cleveland spring may or may not arrive in 20 days –we can only hope. What is certain is that March will be a busy month for our Club.

EVENTS

March 2: Selection of 20 photographs for the Lakewood Interclub Competition. We meet 7 pm at the Beachwood Library. Members can submit 3 entries but only 2 can be selected for the competition. Please make sure that your photos are nicely matted. Everyone can vote to select photographs for the competition so come.

March 9: Interclub Competition at Lakewood at 7 PM. The address of their clubhouse is 16024 Madison Ave. at the corner of Northland St. Directions and maps were available at our Feb. 23rd meeting. I will try to bring extras for distribution at our March 2nd meeting.

March 13: Field Trip to the Cleveland Botanical Garden to photograph the annual Orchid Show. Please meet Wally at the Beachwood Library at 9:30 AM. Spectacular blooms and a good lunch to boot!

March 14: There will be an Artist Reception from 1:30-3pm at the Beachwood Community Center -corner Richmond Rd. & Fairmont Blvd. Fifteen members submitted 39 photographs for the “PHABULOUS PHOTO EXHIBIT” from March 4th – March 27th. Please come to the reception and support your colleagues.

March 23: Karen Beck “John Coulters Yellowstone”

March 27: Jerry Jividen “Photoshop Seminar” at the Beachwood Library from 9-12pm.
